

NEW YORK

January 23–February 5, 2017

BECOMING AN AMERICAN
IN THE
AGE OF TRUMP

By Andrew Sullivan

(BRAND-NEW CITIZEN)

LIVING AS A RUSSIAN
IN THE
AGE OF PUTIN

By Michael Idov

(RECENT MUSCOVITE)

DESIGN HUNTING

The Gallery

Separated by French doors, this annex off the parlor holds some of Aguiar and Haldeman's art collection, including Hunt Slonem's rabbit painting, an illustration of Bill Cunningham in his blue jacket by Manuel Santelices, and a study of the Duchess of Windsor and Elsie de Wolfe, by Kenneth Paul Block. The patterned rug is from Home Depot.

The Upstairs Landing

A painted canvas by Kevin Paulsen covers the stairway wall. The bench is from Home Goods, and the hand-painted silk lantern was a gift from John Derian.

